The Friends of the Chester Public Library is a group of volunteers who love and appreciate the programs, services, information, and welcome we get every time we enter Chester's library. We are dedicated to supporting Chester Library's goal of providing the best in materials and services that fulfill educational, informational, cultural, and recreational needs of the entire community, all in an atmosphere that is welcoming, respectful and fun.

Where would we be without Friends?

Did you know that if it weren't for the Chester Library Friends, you wouldn't be able to borrow a DVD to take home to watch with your family? And your children wouldn't have a summertime reading program? And that pass that provided free admission for your family to the Wadsworth Athenaeum wouldn't exist?

Just as none of us wants a life without friends, your Chester Public Library can't thrive without its Friends.

The Friends fund programs and services for the Chester Library that are not paid for in the town budget. Book discussion groups for adults, materials for children's story hours and programs, all museum and attraction passes, all DVDs and CDs – they're all paid for by the Friends of the Chester Library.

"A library outranks any other one thing a community can do to benefit its people." Andrew Carnegie
